“The Mouth Delivers what the Nose Promises”—Lambert Bridge CFO
Kathy Byrnes

This Petit Verdot is an enigma. The nose is inviting and feminine, full of violets and perfume while the look is masculine—deep, dark and inky. The mouth feel is voluptuous and silky, adding an element of surprise to the black-fruit flavors: Black raspberries, dark plum, black cherries. Petit Verdot is famously tannic; this one is soft and silky.

It is seductive, this one.
